Tawa bookstore celebrates award

Take Note Tawa was named Take Note Store of the Year at the 2017 Paper Plus Group Awards last week.

The winners were announced last week in Christchurch with 350 Paper Plus and Take Note store owners, suppliers and publishers in attendance.

The win came as a surprise for store owners Karen and Steve Pettigrew.

“Our team loves helping the Tawa community when it comes to books and stationery, and to be recognised for this by our peers means a great deal for us,” says Karen.

Paper Plus Group CEO Sam Shosanya congratulated Graham and the Take Note Tawa team on the win.

“Take Note Tawa is a fantastic representation of the Paper Plus group Values, a hub of the community. Karen, Steve and their team are positive and dedicated and we’re delighted to award them with this title.”

About Paper Plus:

The Paper Plus Group began 34 years ago and is one of New Zealand’s largest stationery and book sellers. The Group incorporates two separate retail brands: Paper Plus, which has more than 100 stores and Take Note with 15 stores; all offering a great range of stationery, books, magazines, cards and gifts to New Zealand consumers. There is a Paper Plus store in most towns from Kaikohe to Invercargill. It is the only New Zealand book and stationery retailer with Fly Buys.
