Paper Plus Palmerston North receives community award

Books and stationery store Paper Plus Palmerston North has won the esteemed Paper Plus Group Community award at this week's 2016 Paper Plus Awards.

Paper Plus Palmerston North competed against 100 other Paper Plus stores for the award. The winners were announced at the Rotorua Energy Events Centre on Wednesday night with 350 store owners, suppliers and publishers in attendance.

Paper Plus Palmerston North manager Victoria Hume is honoured to have won the award.

"It was such a privilege to receive this award. Our team love serving the Palmerston North community and we pride ourselves on creating a warm and welcoming environment in our store. It feels great to be recognised for this.

"I want to thank all of our loyal customers and the Palmerston North community who make our job so worthwhile," says Hume.

Sam Shosanya, Paper Plus Group CEO, congratulates Paper Plus Palmerston North and recognises the fantastic work Hume and her team have been doing.

"This is a well-earned award and shows the team's commitment to delivering high standards right across the business. They've created a great culture at the Paper Plus Palmerston North store and should be extremely proud of their achievements."
