Paper Plus Rototuna named best in the country

Books and stationery store Paper Plus Rototuna has scooped the highly acclaimed title of Paper Plus Store of the Year, as well as the Paper Plus Large Business Award at the 2016 Paper Plus Group Awards.

Paper Plus Rototuna competed against 100 other Paper Plus stores for these awards. The winners were announced at the Rotorua Energy Events Centre on Wednesday night with 350 store owners, suppliers and publishers in attendance.

Paper Plus Rototuna owner Shabina Mano was delighted to receive the awards at the exclusive gala dinner.

“I am overjoyed at our team’s success, especially with winning Store of the Year. This title is an incredible honour and I’m so glad that our passionate, hardworking team have been recognised in this way.”

“A huge thank you to the Rototuna community all of our loyal customers, and the continued support they show us,” says Mano.

Sam Shosanya, Paper Plus Group CEO, congratulates Paper Plus Rototuna and recognises the fantastic work Mano and the team have been doing.

“Winning two awards, with one of them being the prestigious title of Store of the Year is a tremendous achievement. This store is a truly worthy recipient, the team puts so much energy and effort into maintaining a level of excellence in all they do.”
